Personal Branding for Junior Lawyers

HOSTED BY THE CMS BAME NETWORK

Please join us for a session led by Ronke Lawal providing strategic insights into how junior lawyers can boost their personal brands through the course of their careers. Ronke will discuss how to make more of an impact both online via social media and offline by networking and how to use personal brands effectively, develop effective relationships and build a community of personal brand ambassadors who will champion you throughout your career journey. There will also be an opportunity at the end of the session for attendees to share ideas, techniques and methods they currently use.

The discussion will be followed by summer drinks and informal networking.
